Assignment 11

This is the title or header of the assignment content.

The body of the assignment content goes here.

This is an example of a figure or diagram.

This is another example of a figure or diagram.

This is a table or a list of items.

This is the conclusion or summary of the assignment.

This is the reference or bibliography section of the assignment.

If there are any specific formatting instructions, they are included here.

The assignment number and due date are included here as well.