Assignment 3

1. Rear arrangement in a room is arranged by which of the following principles?
   a) Symmetry
   b) Orderly
   c) Harmony
   d) Balance

2. Which of the following term is used to describe the distance between the two ends of a room?
   a) Width
   b) Depth
   c) Height
   d) Plan style

3. What is the purpose of an entrance hall?
   a) For decorative purposes only
   b) To provide a welcoming space
   c) For security reasons
   d) To separate the public and private areas

4. The floor plan of a building is used in which of the following ways?
   a) To determine the layout of the building
   b) To plan the interior design
   c) To calculate the cost of construction
   d) All of the above

5. Which of the following is not a principle of design?
   a) Symmetry
   b) Orderly
   c) Harmony
   d) Balance

6. Which of the following principle is related to spatial planning?
   a) Symmetry
   b) Orderly
   c) Harmony
   d) Balance

7. How the following are related to the principles of design?
   a) Symmetry
   b) Orderly
   c) Harmony
   d) Balance

8. Which of the following terms refers to the alignment of objects or patterns in a design?
   a) Symmetry
   b) Orderly
   c) Harmony
   d) Balance

9. Which of the following is not a principle of design?
   a) Symmetry
   b) Orderly
   c) Harmony
   d) Balance

10. Which of the following is not a principle of design?
    a) Symmetry
    b) Orderly
    c) Harmony
    d) Balance

11. What is the purpose of an entrance hall?
    a) For decorative purposes only
    b) To provide a welcoming space
    c) For security reasons
    d) To separate the public and private areas

12. Which of the following is not a principle of design?
    a) Symmetry
    b) Orderly
    c) Harmony
    d) Balance

13. Which of the following is not a principle of design?
    a) Symmetry
    b) Orderly
    c) Harmony
    d) Balance

14. Which of the following is not a principle of design?
    a) Symmetry
    b) Orderly
    c) Harmony
    d) Balance

15. Which of the following is not a principle of design?
    a) Symmetry
    b) Orderly
    c) Harmony
    d) Balance