Assessment 4

The due date for submitting this assignment has passed. Due on 2015-08-07, 23:59 IST.
As per our records you have not submitted this assignment.

1) What is not determined by gender?
   - a) Wearing high-heels or trousers
   - b) Having a beautiful voice to sing
   - c) Men care for the household and women earn the money

No, the answer is incorrect.
Score: 0
Accepted Answers:
b) Having a beautiful voice to sing

2) How are Basic Water Needs and Human Rights linked?
   - a) Access to water and basic water needs are linked to sanitation, health, living quality and all of them are declared basic human rights
   - b) There is no link between basic water needs and human rights
   - c) Basic water needs and human rights were declared as closely linked by the World Water Organization in 1986

No, the answer is incorrect.
Score: 0
Accepted Answers:
a) Access to water and basic water needs are linked to sanitation, health, living quality and all of them are declared basic human rights

3) What are the two prevailing water supply challenges in Western Europe?
   - Water quality and negative population growth
   - Climate change and irregular rainfall patterns
   - Urbanization and fast changing technologies

No, the answer is incorrect.
Score: 0
Accepted Answers:
Water quality and negative population growth

4) What are two factors influencing physical water scarcity?
   - a) Water infrastructure and budgets for operations
   - Water pollution and water allocation
   - Socio-economic development and water conflicts
5) What could be a lasting measure towards breaking the poverty cycle?

- a) Build more schools
- b) Increase salaries
- c) Bring clean water to the doorsteps of people’s homes

No, the answer is incorrect.
Score: 0
Accepted Answers:
Water pollution and water allocation

6) What does mainstreaming gender in water management mean?

- Make sure that women and men benefit equally from water development and water management efforts
- b. Make sure that some women get involved when it comes to stakeholder meetings
- c. Make sure that an equal number of women and men are present in water issues and projects

No, the answer is incorrect.
Score: 0
Accepted Answers:
Make sure that women and men benefit equally from water development and water management efforts

7) What is a limiting factor to our current model of urbanization?

- Resources depletion and degradation
- Not enough housing to accommodate people in decent living conditions
- Inadequate transportation infrastructure in the urban area

No, the answer is incorrect.
Score: 0
Accepted Answers:
Resources depletion and degradation

8) What does the symbiotic city concept entail?

- It entails the segregation of industrial, residential and public spaces to provide for healthy living conditions of people.
- It entails a closed cycle of resources supply, benefit generation and waste removal between urban, peri-urban and rural areas.
- It entails a closed cycle of resources generation and waste management within the urban area.

No, the answer is incorrect.
Score: 0
Accepted Answers:
It entails a closed cycle of resources generation and waste management within the urban area.

9) What is a water right?

- It is the right of a human being to use a certain quantity of water every day
- It is the right to claim water for basic human needs
- It is a permission to abstract or use water from a determined source for private benefits

No, the answer is incorrect.
Score: 0
Accepted Answers:
It is a permission to abstract or use water from a determined source for private benefits

10) What is meant by accountability in water governance?

No, the answer is incorrect.
Score: 0
Accepted Answers:
It is a permission to abstract or use water from a determined source for private benefits
a) It means that water management goals and targets are set in a participatory approach and that the results and consumed resources to achieve those results are communicated in a transparent process to the beneficiaries, trustees and other stakeholders.

b) It means that a water authority has a well equipped accounting department with well trained staff and adequate financial resources to provide water efficiently to the people.

It means that the financial implications of large water infrastructure projects are made public to create awareness for potential budget shortages in others sectors.

No, the answer is incorrect.
Score: 0

Accepted Answers:
a) It means that water management goals and targets are set in a participatory approach and that the results and consumed resources to achieve those results are communicated in a transparent process to the beneficiaries, trustees and other stakeholders.