Week 4 Assignment 4

9. Which of the following is true about the guitar's neck and body?

- The neck is made of wood and the body is made of metal.
- The neck is made of metal and the body is made of wood.
- The neck and body are both made of wood.
- The neck and body are both made of metal.

10. Why is it illegal to own a gun in some countries?

- It is against the law to own a gun in some countries because it is deemed unsafe.
- It is illegal to own a gun in some countries due to political reasons.
- It is against the law to own a gun in some countries to prevent crime.
- It is illegal to own a gun in some countries due to cultural reasons.

11. Which of the following is true about the guitar's neck and body?

- The neck is made of wood and the body is made of metal.
- The neck is made of metal and the body is made of wood.
- The neck and body are both made of wood.
- The neck and body are both made of metal.

12. Which of the following is true about the guitar's neck and body?

- The neck is made of wood and the body is made of metal.
- The neck is made of metal and the body is made of wood.
- The neck and body are both made of wood.
- The neck and body are both made of metal.

13. Which of the following is true about the guitar's neck and body?

- The neck is made of wood and the body is made of metal.
- The neck is made of metal and the body is made of wood.
- The neck and body are both made of wood.
- The neck and body are both made of metal.