Assignment 3

The due date for submitting this assignment has passed. As per our records, you have not submitted this assignment.

1) In the context of Facebook, what does the term “FBI” stand for?
   - Federal Bureau of Investigation
   - Facebook Inspirator
   - Facebook Bureau of Investigation

   No, the answer is incorrect.

2) Which of the following is Twitter’s equivalent of FBI?
   - Twitter API
   - Twitter Search
   - Web of Trust

   No, the answer is incorrect.

3) Which of the following is true regarding Weibo’s Trust?
   - It preserves the uniqueness of a given website
   - It preserves the value of a trusted website
   - It checks whether a website is malicious or not

   All of the above

   No, the answer is incorrect.

4) Which of the following is true regarding privacy?
   - A student who is concerned about privacy issues depending on the situation, based on how far the friend is.
   - A student who doesn’t care about privacy issues at all.
   - A student who is very concerned about privacy, and is unlikely to give away private information at all.

   None of the above.

   No, the answer is incorrect.

5) Which is a feature of a “Session?” in the context of privacy concerns?
   - A student who is concerned about privacy issues depending on the situation, based on how far the friend is.
   - A student who doesn’t care about privacy issues at all.
   - A student who is very concerned about privacy, and is unlikely to give away private information at all.

   None of the above.

   No, the answer is incorrect.

6) What is Weibo’s definition of “Unconfirmed” in the context of privacy concerns?
   - A student who is concerned about privacy issues depending on the situation, based on how far the friend is.
   - A student who doesn’t care about privacy issues at all.
   - A student who is very concerned about privacy, and is unlikely to give away private information at all.

   None of the above.

   No, the answer is incorrect.

7) What is Facebook’s definition of a “FBI?”
   - A student who is concerned about privacy issues depending on the situation, based on how far the friend is.
   - A student who doesn’t care about privacy issues at all.
   - A student who is very concerned about privacy, and is unlikely to give away private information at all.

   None of the above.

   No, the answer is incorrect.

8) What is Twitter’s definition of “A Protagonist” in the context of privacy concerns?
   - A student who is concerned about privacy issues depending on the situation, based on how far the friend is.
   - A student who doesn’t care about privacy issues at all.
   - A student who is very concerned about privacy, and is unlikely to give away private information at all.

   None of the above.

   No, the answer is incorrect.

9) In the survey conducted to understand privacy perceptions in India, which of the following was the most common choice in response to the question “What do you feel about the privacy of your personal information on your OSN?”
   - Even though I have updated my privacy settings, I am concerned about the privacy of my data.
   - I don’t care, but I’ll still share my personal information.
   - Since I have specified my privacy settings, my data is secure from a privacy breach.

   No, the answer is incorrect.

10) In the survey conducted to understand privacy perceptions in India, which of the following was the most common choice in response to the question “If you receive a friend request on your most frequently used OSN, which of the following people will you add friends with?”
   - People of the opposite gender
   - People from my hometown
   - A person with a nice profile picture

   Strangers (people you do not know)

   No, the answer is incorrect.

11) In the survey conducted to understand privacy perceptions in India, which of the following was the least common choice in response to the question “If you receive a friend request on your most frequently used OSN, which of the following people will you add friends with?”
   - People of the opposite gender
   - People from my hometown
   - A person with a nice profile picture

   Strangers (people you do not know)

   No, the answer is incorrect.

End