Assignment 7

Due date: 2018-10-16, 23:59 IST

Unit 8 - Usable security

1. How are Usability and Security related with respect to an application?

2. How can we improve security and usability in mobile applications?

3. Which of the following statements is correct?
   a. Security is more important than usability.
   b. Usability is more important than security.
   c. Security and usability are equally important.

4. What is the difference between usability and accessibility?

5. What is the role of the user in the usability process?

6. Which of the following statements is correct?
   a. Usability can be measured by the number of features in an application.
   b. Usability is determined by the technical specifications of an application.
   c. Usability is determined by how well the user can use the application.

7. What are the key principles of human-computer interaction?

8. Which of the following statements is correct?
   a. Usability is more important than accessibility.
   b. Accessibility is more important than usability.
   c. Usability and accessibility are both important.

9. What are the key principles of human-computer interaction?

10. What are the key principles of human-computer interaction?

11. What are the key principles of human-computer interaction?

12. What are the key principles of human-computer interaction?

13. What are the key principles of human-computer interaction?

14. What are the key principles of human-computer interaction?

15. What are the key principles of human-computer interaction?

16. What are the key principles of human-computer interaction?

17. What are the key principles of human-computer interaction?

18. What are the key principles of human-computer interaction?

19. What are the key principles of human-computer interaction?

20. What are the key principles of human-computer interaction?