Assignment 2

1. How does the number of categories affect the number of possible assignments?

2. If an agent assigns an object to a category, what does this imply about the object?

3. What is the relationship between object distance and assignment distance?

4. How does the number of categories affect the assignment distance?

5. What is the relationship between object distance and assignment distance in different categories?

6. How does the number of categories affect the assignment distance in different categories?

7. If an agent assigns an object to a category, what does this imply about the object?

8. How does the number of categories affect the assignment distance in different categories?

9. What is the relationship between object distance and assignment distance in different categories?

10. How does the number of categories affect the assignment distance in different categories?