Assignment 2

The car manufacturer has set the following performance target for the new engine:

- 20% improvement in fuel efficiency
- 15% increase in torque
- 25% decrease in emissions

You are required to design a new engine block that meets these requirements. The engine block should also be cost-effective and sustainable. You have access to various materials and technologies.

Due Date: 2022-02-21, 23:59 EST