Assignment 4

The due date for submitting this assignment has passed.

As per the rules, if you have not submitted this assignment,

1. Who among the following thinkers argued that rights are absolute in nature and cannot be limited by any means?
   - Hobbes
   - Aristotle
   - Locke
   - Mill
   - Rawls
   - No, the answer is incorrect.
   - Accepted Answers:
     - Hobbes

2. Who among the following is the author of 'The Right to Liberty'?
   - David Hume
   - John Locke
   - John Stuart Mill
   - John Rawls
   - John Locke
   - No, the answer is incorrect.
   - Accepted Answers:
     - John Locke

3. Who among the following is the author of 'The Right to Liberty'?
   - David Hume
   - John Locke
   - John Stuart Mill
   - John Rawls
   - No, the answer is incorrect.
   - Accepted Answers:
     - John Locke

4. Who among the following is the author of 'The Right to Liberty'?
   - David Hume
   - John Locke
   - John Stuart Mill
   - John Rawls
   - No, the answer is incorrect.
   - Accepted Answers:
     - John Locke

5. Which one of the following sentences is not correct regarding rights?
   - Rights are the condition of freedom
   - Rights are certain entitlements and claims of individuals
   - Rights are claims which must be recognized by the society or state
   - Rights are not the condition of freedom
   - Rights are not the condition of freedom
   - No, the answer is incorrect.
   - Accepted Answers:
     - Rights are not the condition of freedom

6. Which one of the following is not correct about the nature of rights?
   - In the state of nature, people had certain natural rights
   - Laws emphasised upon natural rights like life, liberty and property
   - States and societies can take away these natural rights from individuals
   - Natural persons possess the theory of natural rights which can be traced to the conception of state of nature
   - States and societies cannot take away these natural rights from individuals
   - No, the answer is incorrect.
   - Accepted Answers:
     - States and societies cannot take away these natural rights from individuals

7. Which one of the following is not correct about the nature of rights?
   - In the state of nature, people had certain natural rights
   - Laws emphasised upon natural rights like life, liberty and property
   - States and societies can take away these natural rights from individuals
   - Natural persons possess the theory of natural rights which can be traced to the conception of state of nature
   - States and societies cannot take away these natural rights from individuals
   - No, the answer is incorrect.
   - Accepted Answers:
     - States and societies cannot take away these natural rights from individuals

8. Who among the following is the author of 'The Right to Liberty'?
   - David Hume
   - John Locke
   - John Stuart Mill
   - John Rawls
   - No, the answer is incorrect.
   - Accepted Answers:
     - John Locke

9. Who among the following is the author of 'The Right to Liberty'?
   - David Hume
   - John Locke
   - John Stuart Mill
   - John Rawls
   - No, the answer is incorrect.
   - Accepted Answers:
     - John Locke

10. Which one of the following is not correct about the nature of rights?
    - In the state of nature, people had certain natural rights
    - Laws emphasised upon natural rights like life, liberty and property
    - States and societies can take away these natural rights from individuals
    - Natural persons possess the theory of natural rights which can be traced to the conception of state of nature
    - States and societies cannot take away these natural rights from individuals
    - No, the answer is incorrect.
    - Accepted Answers:
      - States and societies cannot take away these natural rights from individuals