Assessment 05: Words

The due date for submitting this assignment has passed. As per our course policy, you have not submitted this assessment.

All Question are Compulsory.

1) Generally speaking, we use the phrase "a ____________" as a minimal unit of meaningful speech that can stand alone.
   - phone
   - morpheme
   - prefix
   - word
   - root

   No, the answer is incorrect.
   Scoring: 0
   Accepted Answers: root

2) One way to solve the symbol grounding problem is to have a set of ________ primes, which are inherently meaningful concepts that are used to define all other concepts.
   - lexical
   - semantic
   - cognitive
   - non-semantic
   - contextual

   No, the answer is incorrect.
   Scoring: 0
   Accepted Answers: semantic

3) ________ is a measure of how often a particular word or all its forms occur in a language.
   - word frequency
   - word family
   - word neighbour
   - word vector

   No, the answer is incorrect.
   Scoring: 0
   Accepted Answers: word frequency

4) The ________ task is a procedure in which the participant is asked to produce a word in response to a prompt.
   - vowel choice
   - word recall
   - word decision
   - word association

   No, the answer is incorrect.
   Scoring: 0
   Accepted Answers: word association

5) ___________ is a mental representation of some sort of statistical regularity in our experience.
   - concept
   - image
   - thought
   - word

   No, the answer is incorrect.
   Scoring: 0
   Accepted Answers: concept

6) The most basic form of a word is called ________, and the set of all forms a word can take is called its ________.
   - lemma
   - root form
   - stem form
   - stem

   No, the answer is incorrect.
   Scoring: 0
   Accepted Answers: root, stem

7) The concept of ________ refers to the storage of information about words in long-term memory.
   - word meaning
   - symbol grounding
   - embodied cognition
   - semantic representation

   No, the answer is incorrect.
   Scoring: 0
   Accepted Answers: semantic representation

8) The process of converting phonological word forms from the speech stream and linking them by way of the mental lexicon to their semantic representations is known as ________.
   - recognition
   - vocal
   - verbal
   - identification

   No, the answer is incorrect.
   Scoring: 0
   Accepted Answers: identification

9) The ability to learn a new word after only one or a few exposures is a process known as ________.
   - word meaning
   - word recognition
   - word learning
   - word memory

   No, the answer is incorrect.
   Scoring: 0
   Accepted Answers: word learning

10) A similarity between two words that frequently co-occur, such as dog and bone, is called ________, whereas a relationship between two words that belong to the same category, such as dog and cat, is called ________.
    - phonemic/phonological
    - morphological
    - semantic/lexical
    - referential

   No, the answer is incorrect.
   Scoring: 0
   Accepted Answers: morphological/semantic

Due on 2019-09-04, 23:59 IST.