Assignment 3

The due date for submitting this assignment has passed. As per our records you have not submitted this assignment.

1. Critical theory questions:
   a. The ethical guidelines that form the basis for truth, meaning, and knowledge.
   b. The social norms that form the basis for truth, meaning, and knowledge.
   c. The assumptions that form the basis of truth, meaning, and knowledge.
   d. No, the answer is incorrect.
   Source: A
   Corrected Answers: c

2. Critical inquiry:
   a. Supports a kind of reasoning that is practical, moral, and ethically informed.
   b. Questions a kind of reasoning that is practical and politically informed.
   c. Refines a kind of reasoning that is practical, moral, and ethically informed.
   d. Assumes a kind of reasoning that is practical and politically informed.
   d. No, the answer is incorrect.
   Source: A
   Corrected Answers: c

3. The primary purpose of critical inquiry is:
   a. To question existing norms.
   b. The quest for a better world.
   b. No, the answer is incorrect.
   Source: A
   Corrected Answers: a

4. Generalizability is possible in critical inquiry:
   a. True.
   b. False.
   a. No, the answer is incorrect.
   Source: A
   Corrected Answers: b

5. The methodology of critical theory is primarily:
   a. Experiential and analytical.
   b. Theological and biblical.
   c. Theology and construction of reality.
   b. No, the answer is incorrect.
   Source: A
   Corrected Answers: c

6. What do critics of critical theory interpret as 'critical' in critical theory?
   a. The assumption that research through other paradigms may require more rigor.
   b. The assumption that the world needs research to utilize the existing norms.
   a. No, the answer is incorrect.
   Source: A
   Corrected Answers: b

7. One of the critiques of critical theory is:
   a. That it highlights the merits of capitalism.
   b. That it is silent on the merits and demerits of capitalism.
   c. That it discards the merits of capitalism.
   c. No, the answer is incorrect.
   Source: A
   Corrected Answers: b

8. Another critique of critical theory is:
   a. That it is too pessimistic.
   b. That it is too optimistic.
   c. That it is neither optimistic nor pessimistic.
   b. No, the answer is incorrect.
   Source: A
   Corrected Answers: c