Assignment 3

Due date: 2020-09-19, 23:59 IST.

1. Statement 1: A patent is an exclusive monopoly right conferred by the government.
   - True
   - False
   - Not applicable to question 4
   - Not applicable to question 5

2. Invention relating to atomic energy
   - Can be patented
   - Cannot be patented
   - Not applicable to question 4
   - Not applicable to question 5

3. What is the following right that do not need a registration to be enforced?
   - Design
   - Copyright
   - Trademark
   - Geographical indication

4. The patent cover which allow the monopoly right for how long?
   - Initial granted for 10 years then can be renewed
   - Initial granted for 5 years then can be renewed
   - Initial granted for 20 years then can be renewed

5. Who among the following can apply for a patent?
   - The true and first inventor
   - The true and first assignee
   - The true and first legal representative
   - Any person interested in the invention

6. Which of the following option are correct?
   - A patent granted to John is valid in Malaysia
   - A patent granted to John is valid in India
   - Both A and B are true
   - Both A and B are false

7. Which of these types of an application can be filed under the Indian Patent Act?
   - PCT National Phase Application
   - Convention Application
   - Domestic Application
   - Patent of Addition

8. A complete specification for a patent has to be Red which
   - 18 months
   - 24 months
   - 36 months
   - 48 months

9. A PCT application is managed by
   - WIPO
   - IPO
   - OMD
   - EUIPO

10. Which of the following invention is not capable of patent is inventions?
    - New
    - Non-obvious
    - Industrial applicability
    - Both A and B are applicable

11. The answer is incorrect. Choose the correct answer from the following options.
    - B, 6 months
    - 12 months
    - 18 months
    - 24 months

12. Which of the following invention is not capable of patent is inventions?
    - New
    - Non-obvious
    - Industrial applicability
    - Both A and B are applicable