Assignment 8

The due date for submitting this assignment has passed. As per our records you have not submitted this assignment.

Score: 0/10

1. The people may not grudge, I think, the speaker: (2 points)
   - Old Rachel
   - The governor of the Bastille
   - Louis XV
   - Marly de Bourbonville

No, the answer is incorrect. Accepted Answers:
- Old Rachel
- The governor of the Bastille

2. Where did the nobility of France flee to? (2 points)
   - The seaside
   - Russia
   - England
   - Their summer houses

No, the answer is incorrect. Accepted Answers:
- Russia

3. "...Men may be disaffected, but as theyertiary reading the prince backwards for a great number of years, and performing many other patriotic acts for the purpose of making them lose their monopoly and breaking the spirit of the people." What did the speaker say to this? (2 points)
   - "The common people are weak and the nobility reforms the King to his interest and to his hosts." Read the speech closely and identify what it implies.

No, the answer is incorrect. Accepted Answers:
- "The common people are weak and the nobility reforms the King to his interest and to his hosts."

4. "Now a public opinion is formed from those with the little possible delay, and the burning of them as within the power of everyone (myself but myself) of any one." What did the speaker say to this? (2 points)
   - "Some affect documents.
   - Dead customers of the Tellerus.
   - Money
   - Customers who might reveal secrets

No, the answer is incorrect. Accepted Answers:
- "Some affect documents.
- Dead customers of the Tellerus.
- Money
- Customers who might reveal secrets"

5. Who is referred to as the "man who abandoned his post"? Why is this ironic? (2 points)
   - M. Deberge
   - Because he was forced to abandon his post.
   - He was abandoned.
   - It was not because of his own will

No, the answer is incorrect. Accepted Answers:
- M. Deberge
- Because he was forced to abandon his post.

6. "I am sorry because I believe there is contamination in such a scoundrel." Identify the speaker: (2 points)
   - Monseur Godfrey
   - Old Rachel
   - John Black
   - Mr. Winker

No, the answer is incorrect. Accepted Answers:
- Monseur Godfrey

7. Charlotte Dumas was "doomed to be a bastard child." What does "doomed to be a bastard child" represent in the novel? (2 points)
   - Revolutionary France
   - A refugee
   - Doctor Manette
   - Lucie Manette

No, the answer is incorrect. Accepted Answers:
- Revolutionary France

8. "How does the narrator describe the presence of La France?" (2 points)
   - Oppressive
   - Strong
   -Ghostly
   - Evil

No, the answer is incorrect. Accepted Answers:
- Oppressive

9. "My dear friend, I have a cherished life in this city," Why is Doctor Manette treated well? (2 points)
   - Because he is a doctor who can tend to the sick
   - Because he was a Bastille prisoner
   - Because he is not a rascal
   - Because he was the son of the Dangiers

No, the answer is incorrect. Accepted Answers:
- Because he was a Bastille prisoner

10. "In the name of God, why are you so tired...?" Why did you come to France? (2 points)
    - Madame Defarge
    - Across the Rhine
    - The French Revolution
    - The Garret

No, the answer is incorrect. Accepted Answers:
- Across the Rhine