Assignment 2

Due on 2019-06-23, 23:59 IST.

1. To which Victorian novel's treatment of the supernatural does Kyline make a reference in the story?
   - "Dracula" by Bram Stoker
   - "Wuthering Heights" by Emily Bronte
   - "The Turn of the Screw" by Henry James
   - "The Picture of Dorian Gray" by Oscar Wilde
   Accepted Answer: "Wuthering Heights"

2. What does Kyline's descriptive typography of infant ghosts mean for the narrative?
   - It enhances the creepiness of the story
   - It adds a sense of mystery and suspense
   - It creates a sense of historical context
   - None of the above
   Accepted Answer: "It enhances the creepiness of the story"

3. What does the words "Kyline" and "shadow" signify in the context of the story?
   - A person's presence without being seen
   - A memory of a past event
   - A warning of danger
   - None of the above
   Accepted Answer: "A person's presence without being seen"

4. What is the narrator's conclusion about the appearance of the shadow?
   - It is a trick of the light
   - It is a supernatural occurrence
   - It is a hallucination
   - None of the above
   Accepted Answer: "It is a supernatural occurrence"

5. What are the conditions for the narrator to see the shadow?
   - In the daylight
   - When it is raining
   - When it is dark
   - None of the above
   Accepted Answer: "When it is dark"

6. Which elements are present in the shadow's description?
   - Red eyes
   - A long, snarling snout
   - A bright, glowing presence
   - None of the above
   Accepted Answer: "A bright, glowing presence"

7. What is the shadow's role in the story?
   - A haunting presence
   - A warning of impending danger
   - A representation of the narrator's imagination
   - None of the above
   Accepted Answer: "A haunting presence"

8. In the story, who is the narrator addressing when they refer to "the memory of a past event"?
   - A friend
   - A visitor
   - A relative
   - None of the above
   Accepted Answer: "A friend"

9. What does the shadow symbolize in the story?
   - A symbol of the unknown
   - A representation of the narrator's subconscious
   - A warning of impending danger
   - None of the above
   Accepted Answer: "A symbol of the unknown"

10. How does the shadow affect the narrator's way of seeing?
    - It makes them feel uncomfortable
    - It changes their perspective
    - It makes them more cautious
    - None of the above
    Accepted Answer: "It changes their perspective"