Assignment 8

The due date for submitting this assignment has passed.
As per our records you have not submitted this assignment.

1) What is it about life writing that Disability studies can ill afford to ignore?
   - [ ] Its inevitable connection with the idea that personal is political
   - [ ] Literary form such as Autobiography
   - [ ] Its liminal character
   - [ ] Its postmodern characteristic

No, the answer is incorrect.
Score: 0
Accepted Answers:
Its inevitable connect with the idea that personal is political

2) What happens when disability is treated as a master status:
   - [ ] It can lead to stigma
   - [ ] There is a risk that other aspects of a disabled person’s identity are under rated
   - [ ] It can become a convenient narrative trope
   - [ ] Idealisation

No, the answer is incorrect.
Score: 0
Accepted Answers:
There is a risk that other aspects of a disabled person’s identity are under rated

3) autobiography is:
   - [ ] Autobiography of disabled people on wheels
   - [ ] Personal narratives of autistic people
   - [ ] Word painting
   - [ ] Autobiography symbolically linked to car culture

No, the answer is incorrect.
Score: 0
Accepted Answers:
personal narratives of autistic people

4) Mental hospitals are usually represented by a negative metaphor since:
   - [ ] Mental disability is loaded with a score of negative metaphors
   - [ ] Mental disability’s natural connect with marginalisation
   - [ ] They attract what one may call disability disavowal
   - [ ] They remind people of the limits of rationality

No, the answer is incorrect.
Score: 0
Accepted Answers:
you attract what one may call disability disavowal

5) “The fantasies inspired by TB in the last century, by cancer now, are responses to a disease thought to be intractable and capricious—that is, a disease
   - [ ] not understood—in an era in which medicine’s central premise is that all diseases can be cured”.

The above statement by Susan Sontag draws our attention to:
   - [ ] Cancer’s capacity to host unruvy metaphors
   - [ ] Medicine’s incapacity to restrict cancer metaphors from within a cure framework
   - [ ] Malignancy
   - [ ] Cancer and TB are comparable

No, the answer is incorrect.
Score: 0
Accepted Answers:
Medicine’s incapacity to restrict cancer metaphors from within a cure framework