Assignment 3

The due date for submitting this assignment has passed.
As per our records you have not submitted this assignment.

1. "Philip Sidney writes An Apology for Poetry is defined as to:
   - Stephen Greenblatt’s “School of Abuse”
   - Stephen Bannerman’s “School of Poetry”
   - I. Littledyce: The Poetics of Antiquity
   - Antonia Pyuo
   - Due: 0 point
   - Accepted Answers:
     - Stephen Greenblatt’s “School of Abuse”

2. How does Sidney introduce the Ovate word poem?
   - To glorify
   - To modify
   - To make
   - To write
   - Due: 0 point
   - Accepted Answers:
     - To glorify

3. How does Sidney define imagination?
   - A combination of invention and wit
   - A combination of invention and fancy
   - A combination of wit and creativity
   - A combination of creativity and skill
   - Due: 0 point
   - Accepted Answers:
     - A combination of invention and wit

4. What are these three kinds of frameworks that Sidney attributes to imitation poetry?
   - Religious, historical, indicative
   - Divine,Philosophical, indicative
   - Divine, Philosphical, metaphysical
   - Empirical,Philosophical, politcal
   - Due: 0 point
   - Accepted Answers:
     - Religious, historical, indicative

5. How does Sidney departs from the traditional and classical understanding of poetry?
   - He calls it a means to express the reasons
   - He calls it in order to reach and delight
   - He calls it a prayer to God
   - He calls it a commandment of God
   - Due: 0 point
   - Accepted Answers:
     - He calls it in order to reach and delight

6. To Sidney, why is it essential to say poets can lead worldly activity?
   - No one listens to them
   - They have the backing of Elizabeth’s court
   - They cannot literally be, because they actually are nothing
   - Poets work with historians and philosophers to say, only true things
   - Due: 0 point
   - Accepted Answers:
     - They have the backing of Elizabeth’s court

7. To Sidney, what is the primary reason poetry is the most important discipline?
   - Poetry makes women fall in love with you
   - Poetry possesses a clarity not found in other studies
   - Poetry has a unique power to create and drive men to virtue
   - Poetry requires the most skill to raise
   - Due: 0 point
   - Accepted Answers:
     - Poetry has a unique power to create and drive men to virtue

8. Which of the following is a false statement?
   - Poetry deals with the universal
   - Poetry deals with the particular
   - Two are of poetry is to teach and delight
   - Poetry as a true and a false
   - Due: 0 point
   - Accepted Answers:
     - Poetry deals with the universal

9. What metaphor is Sidney reproducing when he writes that poetry must be “gently led, or rather it must lead”?
   - Poetry as opposed to friendship
   - Poetry as a vehicle for self-understanding
   - Poetry as a means or nothing
   - Poetry as a rope
   - Due: 0 point
   - Accepted Answers:
     - Poetry as a rope

10. Which is the correct definition of a poet?
     - Inclined to teach and delight
     - Inclined to teach and delight
     - Inclined to teach and delight
     - Inclined to teach and delight
     - Due: 0 point
     - Accepted Answers:
       - Inclined to teach and delight