Assignment 4

Due on 2020-10-14, 23:59 IST.

1. Which poem defines ‘Will’ as ‘What of was thought but never so well expressed’?
   - Alexander Pope's "The Dunciad"
   - Dryden's "Axioms and Anecdotes"
   - Robert Burns' "The Analysis of Life"
   - Pope's "An Essay on Criticism"
   - Dryden's "Mac Flecknoe"

2. Which critic suggested the term 'Age of Sensibility' for the pre-Romantic or post-Augustan age?
   - Kenneth Burke
   - Northrop Frye
   - T. E. Hulit
   - W. H. Auden
   - R. Denham

3. Which literary personality does Dryden satirizes in "Mac Flecknoe"?
   - T. W. Shriver
   - C. W. Gibbon
   - Joseph Addison
   - Jonathan Swift
   - Dan Jansen

4. Which poetic device does the poet employ in the following lines of "Mac Flecknoe"?
   - Allusion
   - Transferred epithet
   - Person
   - Epigram
   - Hyperbole

5. What does 'Spence' write in Pope's "An Essay to Dr. Arbuthnot"?
   - Lord Methley
   - The Earl of Newcastle
   - Joseph Addison
   - Lord Hervey
   - Lord Godolphin

6. How long does Pope recommend scientists to wait before they publish?
   - Three years
   - Five years
   - Seven years
   - Nine years
   - Eleven years

7. Which one of the following is a major characteristic of Pope's poetry?
   - Hyperbole
   - Misanthropy
   - Simile
   - Antithesis
   - Consonance

8. What does Halsmann's reading of Coleridge's "Dybb" reveal?
   - Condensed sentences of death
   - Recital questions of death
   - Fluid cycle of death
   - Imaginative undertones of death
   - The central idea of the title on the whole

9. What does a posthumously selected reading of William Collins' "Ode toanning" suggest?
   - The poem is a love letter to the process of writing a poem, especially the innovation in the muse
   - The poem discusses the unrecorded life
   - The poem expresses the expected time with the dissolved outside, though attached to the beauteous and dangers of life
   - The poem refers to the beauty of the garden and the garden of life
   - The poem universalizes a poetic evening as the evening of every life

10. Which of the following is the subtitle of William Blake's "Songs of Innocence and Experience"?
    - Without conclusion, there is no prepossession
    - The contrary state of imagination and vision
    - The romance of the human existence
    - The seeing of the two contrary states of the human soul
    - The Augustin of Experience

No, the answer is incorrect.

Accept Answer

Show the first contrary state of the human soul