Assignment 3

Due on: 2020-02-12, 23:59 UTC

A company managing the ecosystem has asked you as a consultant to draw on your knowledge on self-generating industries for collective action to scrutinize the Contrary Point Resource (CPR) Act.

1. (A) If the company is managed by "self-generating industries", what are some potential benefits?

2. (A) The company is managed by "self-generating industries", what are some potential benefits?

3. Among the following, which one can lead to the "self-generating industries"? Explain your choice.
   a. Market failure
   b. Government intervention
   c. Inefficient market outcomes
   d. None of the above

4. A company is introduced as a "self-generating industry", but how does it become a "self-generating industry"?

5. Explain what makes a "collective action". What are the "collective goals"?

6. A company is introduced as a "self-generating industry", what are some potential benefits?

7. A company is introduced as a "self-generating industry", what are some potential benefits?

8. A company is introduced as a "self-generating industry", what are some potential benefits?

9. A company is introduced as a "self-generating industry", what are some potential benefits?

10. A company is introduced as a "self-generating industry", what are some potential benefits?