ASSIGNMENT 4

Due on 2020-03-25, 22:59:07

1. Distinguish between poverty indices and inequality measures. Which one is more relevant? Explain. 1 point
2. What are the main strengths and weaknesses of using Gini coefficient? 1 point
3. What do we mean by inequality? 1 point
4. How is inequality related to poverty? 1 point
5. What are the main causes of poverty? Discuss. 1 point

Section B: Poverty and Environment

6. Which of the following statements are true? 1 point
   a. Poverty is a result of environmental degradation.
   b. Environment provides basic to livelihoods.
   c. Poor people contribute little to environment protection.

Section C: Solutions in Affordability

7. Distinguish between poverty, inequality, and environment. 1 point
8. How can environment help reduce poverty? 1 point

Section D: Poverty and Environment

9. Which of the following statements are true? 1 point
   a. Environment provides basic to livelihoods.
   b. Poor people contribute little to environment protection.
   c. Environment provides basic to livelihoods.

Section E: Environment and Inequality

10. What are the main causes of poverty? Discuss. 1 point
11. How does the environment impact poverty? 1 point

Section F: Poverty and Environment

12. Which of the following statements are true? 1 point
   a. Poverty is a result of environmental degradation.
   b. Environment provides basic to livelihoods.
   c. Poor people contribute little to environment protection.

Section G: Solutions in Affordability

13. How can environment help reduce poverty? 1 point

Section H: Poverty and Environment

14. Which of the following statements are true? 1 point
   a. Environment provides basic to livelihoods.
   b. Poor people contribute little to environment protection.
   c. Environment provides basic to livelihoods.