Week 3 Assignment

1) The procedure used for research is termed as:
   - Method
   - Methodology
   - Literature review

   Accepted Answers:
   - Method

2) The study of the procedures used to answer a particular research question leading to the choice of the most appropriate choice of procedure, is known as:
   - Method
   - Methodology
   - Literature review

   Accepted Answers:
   - Methodology

3) Reliability refers to:
   - The fit between the results of a study and the research question
   - The consistency of results

   Accepted Answers:
   - The consistency of results

4) Validity refers to:
   - The fit between the results of a study and the research question
   - The consistency of results

   Accepted Answers:
   - The fit between the results of a study and the research question
5) Critiquing requires:
   - Criticizing
   - Developing further insights into the content being reviewed and opposing content by acknowledging both the strengths and weaknesses
   - Challenging accepted wisdom and common knowledge

   Accepted Answers:
   Developing further insights into the content being reviewed and opposing content by acknowledging both the strengths and weaknesses

6) While presenting the results section of a study,
   - One must explain the reasons for specific results
   - One must not explain the reasons for specific results

   Accepted Answers:
   One must not explain the reasons for specific results

7) The section of the study that deals with an explanation of the findings in light of previous literature is:
   - Results
   - Discussion
   - Conclusion

   Accepted Answers:
   Discussion

8) While presenting the discussion of results of a study,
   - One must deal with each result individually.
   - One must only deal with significant results or categorize similar results and deal with categories instead of individual results.

   Accepted Answers:
   One must only deal with significant results or categorize similar results and deal with categories instead of individual results.