Assignment 4

1. Name the action involved in 6a. classical lesson plan. Plan the song, role-play, stories, and games.
   - Planning
   - Role-playing
   - songs
   - stories
   - games

2. Name the action involved in 6b. another way to prevent loss of focus on a class.
   - Creating a fun environment
   - Engaging students
   - Using real-life examples
   - Incorporating technology

3. Name the action involved in 6c. evaluate your students' developmental stage on math instruction.
   - Assessing progress
   - Identifying learning gaps
   - Providing differentiated instruction
   - Encouraging peer learning

4. What is the problem with "rally" in a setup context?
   - Overloading the learner
   - Lack of engagement
   - No clear objectives
   - Time-consuming

5. What is the problem with "rally" in a setup context?
   - Overloading the learner
   - Lack of engagement
   - No clear objectives
   - Time-consuming

6. Match the following with their corresponding context.
   - A. Teacher's perception of student understanding
   - B. Student's perception of student understanding
   - C. Teacher's perception of student effort
   - D. Student's perception of student effort

7. What is the difference between planning and designing a lesson plan?
   - Planning involves deciding on the content and objectives
   - Designing involves creating the actual lesson's sequence

8. What is the difference between planning and designing a lesson plan?
   - Planning involves deciding on the content and objectives
   - Designing involves creating the actual lesson's sequence

9. In the following matrix, identify the correct column.
   - A. Planning
   - B. Designing
   - C. Assessment
   - D. Reflection

10. If the following matrix, identify the correct column.
    - A. Planning
    - B. Designing
    - C. Assessment
    - D. Reflection

11. What is the difference between planning and designing a lesson plan?
    - Planning involves deciding on the content and objectives
    - Designing involves creating the actual lesson's sequence

12. What is the difference between planning and designing a lesson plan?
    - Planning involves deciding on the content and objectives
    - Designing involves creating the actual lesson's sequence

13. What is the difference between planning and designing a lesson plan?
    - Planning involves deciding on the content and objectives
    - Designing involves creating the actual lesson's sequence

14. What is the difference between planning and designing a lesson plan?
    - Planning involves deciding on the content and objectives
    - Designing involves creating the actual lesson's sequence

15. What is the difference between planning and designing a lesson plan?
    - Planning involves deciding on the content and objectives
    - Designing involves creating the actual lesson's sequence