Assignment 6

Formatting and Style

1. Convert the document into a professional format suitable for publication.
   - Use a consistent and appropriate font size and style.
   - Use headings and subheadings to organize the content.
   - Ensure paragraphs are properly indented.

2. Write the above text in a different style, retaining the original meaning.
   - Use a formal tone.
   - Avoid contractions and colloquial language.

3. Write the following paragraphs in active voice.
   - The subject performs the action. (Example: The team completes the project.)

4. Write the following paragraphs in passive voice.
   - The subject receives the action. (Example: The project is completed by the team.)

5. Write a summary of the main points of the article.
   - Include key facts and conclusions.

6. Write the same text in the second person.
   - Use pronouns such as “you” and “your.”

7. Write the following paragraph in future tense.
   - Describe what will happen in the future.

8. Write the following paragraph in past tense.
   - Describe what happened in the past.

9. Write the following paragraph in prescriptive tense.
   - Give advice or recommendations.

10. Write the following paragraph in imperative tense.
    - Give commands or instructions.

11. Write the following paragraph in locative tense.
    - Describe the setting or location.

12. Write the following paragraph in ablative tense.
    - Describe the reason for an action.

13. Write the following paragraph in infinitive tense.
    - Describe an action without a subject.

14. Write the following paragraph in subjunctive tense.
    - Express a wish or possibility.

15. Write the following paragraph in optative tense.
    - Express a command or request.

16. Write the following paragraph in conditional tense.
    - Describe a hypothetical situation.

17. Write the following paragraph in superlative tense.
    - Describe the highest or lowest qualities.

18. Write the following paragraph in comparative tense.
    - Compare two or more things.

19. Write the following paragraph in disjunctive tense.
    - Describe alternatives.

20. Write the following paragraph in causal tense.
    - Describe the cause and effect relationship.

21. Write the following paragraph in relative tense.
    - Describe the relationship between two or more things.

22. Write the following paragraph in intensive tense.
    - Describe an intensive or emphatic action.

23. Write the following paragraph in interrogative tense.
    - Ask a question.

24. Write the following paragraph in imperative tense with negative.
    - Give an instruction or command with a negative.

25. Write the following paragraph in interrogative tense with negative.
    - Ask a question with a negative.

26. Write the following paragraph in imperative tense with positive.
    - Give an instruction or command with a positive.

27. Write the following paragraph in interrogative tense with positive.
    - Ask a question with a positive.

28. Write the following paragraph in imperative tense with possessive.
    - Give an instruction or command with a possessive.

29. Write the following paragraph in interrogative tense with possessive.
    - Ask a question with a possessive.

30. Write the following paragraph in imperative tense with comparative.
    - Give an instruction or command with a comparative.

31. Write the following paragraph in interrogative tense with comparative.
    - Ask a question with a comparative.

32. Write the following paragraph in imperative tense with superlative.
    - Give an instruction or command with a superlative.

33. Write the following paragraph in interrogative tense with superlative.
    - Ask a question with a superlative.