Unit 5 - Week 3

Assignment 3

Due on 2020-11-07, 23:59 UTC

1. Decision making is an essential skill that leaders practice regularly. Explain how this skill is important in decision making.

2. Core values are the fundamental beliefs that guide an organization. Explain how core values influence decision making.

3. An organization’s structure can impact decision making. Discuss how different structures affect decision making.

4. A structured decision process can enhance the effectiveness of decision making. Describe the components of a structured decision process.

5. Leaders must be aware of biases that can affect decision making. Discuss types of biases and strategies to mitigate them.

6. The speed of decision making is crucial in some situations. Discuss the trade-offs between speed and quality in decision making.

7. Group decision making can be beneficial or detrimental. Discuss the pros and cons of group decision making.

8. Effective decision making involves ongoing assessment and reflection. Explain how feedback and evaluation shape future decision making.

9. Ethical considerations are important in decision making. Discuss how ethical principles guide decision making.

10. Decision making in organizations is influenced by various factors. Discuss how external and internal factors impact decision making.

11. Decision making is a dynamic process that requires adaptability. Discuss how decision making processes evolve over time.

12. Decision making in organizations is a complex activity that involves multiple stakeholders. Discuss the role of communication in decision making.

13. Decision makers must consider various perspectives when making decisions. Discuss how diverse perspectives shape decision making.

14. Decision making in organizations is influenced by the interplay between various factors. Discuss how these factors interact to influence decision making.

15. Decision making is a critical skill for effective leadership. Discuss how leaders develop and refine their decision-making abilities.

16. Decision making in organizations is influenced by the interplay between various factors. Discuss how these factors interact to influence decision making.

17. Decision making in organizations is influenced by the interplay between various factors. Discuss how these factors interact to influence decision making.

18. Decision making in organizations is influenced by the interplay between various factors. Discuss how these factors interact to influence decision making.

19. Decision making in organizations is influenced by the interplay between various factors. Discuss how these factors interact to influence decision making.

20. Decision making in organizations is influenced by the interplay between various factors. Discuss how these factors interact to influence decision making.

21. Decision making in organizations is influenced by the interplay between various factors. Discuss how these factors interact to influence decision making.

22. Decision making in organizations is influenced by the interplay between various factors. Discuss how these factors interact to influence decision making.