Assignment 10

1. Describe the process of making a high-resolution image using a camera.

2. Explain the principle behind the operation of a digital camera.

3. Discuss the advantages and disadvantages of different types of lenses used in photography.

4. Analyze the impact of lighting conditions on the quality of a photograph.

5. Evaluate the role of post-processing techniques in enhancing the final image.

6. Compare the use of various image editing software and their specific features.

7. Discuss the ethical considerations involved in digital photography.

8. Assess the impact of emerging technologies on the future of photography.

9. Write a brief report on your own photography project, including the process and outcomes.

10. Research and present on a new photographic technique or technology.