Unit 5 – Week 3

Assignment 3

Due on 2021-09-10, 23:59 GMT

Week 3

1. Which of the following elements belong to French Landscape?
   A) Natural Stone
   B) Concrete structures
   C) Simple elegant furniture
   D) All of the above

2. The Philosophy of French landscape style is Romanticism
   A) True
   B) False

3. In Italian gardens the concept of Garden of fine verses, addressed to the senses of sight, smell, touch, hearing and taste, and has been originally adopted.
   A) True
   B) False

4. Most important aspect of the Villa di Castello, Tuscania was its water feature.
   A) True
   B) False

5. Which of the following Italian gardens belong to the Early Renaissance period?
   A) San Marco di Romana, Lazio
   B) Villa d'Este
   C) Hadrian's Villa of Tivoli
   D) All of the above

6. The English style gardens were built on a combined scale of natural setting and man-made elements.
   A) True
   B) False

7. The design of the park, San Marco di Romana, was done with an intention to portray which element?
   A) Disguise
   B) Abstraction
   C) Birth of the above
   D) None of the above

8. The Artificial tree of boxwood with spouts to sprinkle water remained while new fountains were invented in which section of the Chartres and the English garden?
   A) 1st Duke of Parke
   B) Modern Garden
   C) Early Garden
   D) None of the above

9. The gardens of Versailles is divided around Two [2] main axes?
   A) True
   B) False