Instructions:

In Week 1, you are provided with 3 LxT resources (LxT 1.1, 1.2 and 1.3) and three AQs corresponding to each of these resources. You are most welcome to go through all these resources; however, you need to do ONLY ONE OUT OF THE THREE QUIZZES (AQs) for grading purposes.

This AQ is based on LxT 1.2. Hence, please take this AQ in case you have accessed LxT 1.2. You will need to answer all questions to be able to submit the quiz.

You may attempt this quiz multiple times; however, the last quiz score, attempted before the deadline, will be considered for final grading.

1) Which of the following does NOT best describe the student-centered instruction?

- A. Students influence the content, activities and pace of learning
- B. Students are able to learn the content in a faster pace
- C. The learning model places the learner in the centre of the learning process
- D. The learning model provides opportunities for students to learn independently and from one another

No, the answer is incorrect.

- C. To improve students’ learning and retention of knowledge

No, the answer is incorrect.
Score: 0

Feedback:
Although there may be many reasons for instructors to adopt a student-centered learning approach, the two prime reasons include a) to make learning more enjoyable for students and motivate them, and b) to improve students’ learning, retention of knowledge and deeper understanding. However, reducing the workload of instructors in preparation of lectures is not one of the goals of adopting student-centered learning approach.

Accepted Answers:
B. To reduce the workload of instructors in preparation of lectures

3) The student-centered learning approach can be used in....

- A. Large classes
- B. Small groups
- C. Both A and B

No, the answer is incorrect.
Score: 0

Feedback:
The LxT resource paper clearly states the use of student-centered learning approach in large classrooms as well as small groups. Some of the strategies mentioned for large classrooms include think-pair-share, peer instruction, minute paper exercises. Facilitating small groups to form teams for effective learning has also been discussed.

Accepted Answers:
C. Both A and B
