Unit 5 - Week 4

Assignment 4

Due on 2019-06-23, 23:59 IST.

This session provides history and current status of solid waste management and sanitation in Alappuzha town. The session discusses case studies of organic and inorganic waste management in town. It discusses decentralized waste management initiatives involving women self help groups. It highlights role and relevance of youth and youth collectives in management of waste.

1) The following statement is true or false.
   - True
   - False
   - Accepted Answers:
     - True

   Aerobic decomposition is slower than anaerobic decomposition

2) The dimension of aerobic unit is determined by using the following parameters.
   - Temperature
   - Humidity
   - Population density
   - All of the above
   - Accepted Answers:
     - Temperature

   No, the answer is incorrect.
   - Score: 0

3) The following statement is true or false.
   - True
   - False
   - Accepted Answers:
     - True

   Biodigester is a byproduct of anaerobic digestion.

4) The following statement is true or false.
   - True
   - False
   - Accepted Answers:
     - True

Social interventions are as important as technical interventions in addressing the problem of rejuvenation of a natural resource.

5) Hartha Kaamara Sera (HKS) is a group of child volunteers from the neighbourhood.
   - True
   - False
   - Accepted Answers:
     - True

CanSan clubs consists of youth from various youth organizations in the town.

6) The following statement is true or false.
   - True
   - False
   - Accepted Answers:
     - False

Aerobic bins are a desirable solution for households with large plot area.

7) The following statement is true or false.
   - True
   - False
   - Accepted Answers:
     - False

Alappuzha has a centralized model of solid waste management.

8) The following statement is true or false.
   - True
   - False
   - Accepted Answers:
     - False