Week 3 Assignment 3

1. Which of the following are parts of a document?
   a. Format of memories
   b. Title
   c. Place of distribution
   d. All of the above

2. At the peer-to-peer document accuracy, based on description of the use of technology into which the peer-to-peer data is divided.
   a. The use of a document
   b. Field of operation
   c. Object of evaluation
   d. Users

3. To which "RDS" belong in a country code in a document?
   a. Wordings
   b. Traces
   c. Terms of fear
   d. None of these

4. Which of the following is not a part of a document?
   a. EP-4 in the Commercially pre-sized versions
   b. Preliminary edits after A classification
   c. Format-vulnerable versions with DMS and/or image files
   d. Preliminary edits as required

5. RDS code ends with?
   a. Indian code for the document
   b. Date and time code for the document
   c. Standards number or version number
   d. Standards as required

6. Which one of these is not part of a document?
   a. Address of the postal office with the code
   b. Description of the version
   c. Dimension and measurements
   d. Words in a

7. Following are the factors that determine the requirements related to "rules" of the document?
   a. Indian 1.56, code 18
   b. Indian 1.06, code 29
   c. Section 1.57, code 13
   d. Section 1.57 (i) code 15

8. "Code of law in the field" is a document in?
   a. Field of evaluation
   b. Manuals
   c. Standardization
   d. Abroad

9. Following, are the factors that determine the requirements related to "rules" of the document?
   a. Wordings
   b. Traces
   c. Terms of fear
   d. None of these

10. A person to be general without operation, generally here?
    a. Use of different independent claims (list of naming options from known to new)
    b. Mandatory 10-page standard text
    c. Description of only one claim
    d. View of the data