Assignment 9

The due date for submitting this assignment has passed.
As per our records you have not submitted this assignment.

1) Which of the following is true about the Directive Principles of State Policy?
   - They are enforceable directly in the courts of law.
   - They are not enforceable directly in the courts of law.
   - They can be used to interpret our fundamental rights in courts of law.
   - None of these

Answer: None of these
Score: 0

2) Which of the following is not a Directive Principle of State Policy?
   - Prevention of concentrations of wealth
   - Ensuring equal pay for equal work for men and women
   - Fraternity to the government
   - None of these

Answer: None of these
Score: 0

3) Which of the following are ways in which the Directive Principles can be used?
   - As a statement of aspiration for legislative action
   - As a guide for judicial action to fill interpretative gaps
   - As a guide for judicial action to declare the law as non-viable
   - All of these

Answer: All of these
Score: 0

4) Can Directive Principles of State Policy override the fundamental rights?
   - Yes, they can override
   - Yes, they cannot override
   - They must be read together and harmoniously
   - None of these

Answer: Yes, they can override
Score: 0

5) Were laws supporting land redistribution contrary to the Directive Principle to property?
   - Yes, they cannot be read harmoniously
   - Yes, they cannot be read harmoniously as laws furthering the cause of Article 31(3)(c) cannot violate fundamental rights
   - None of these
   - Both of these

Answer: Yes, they cannot be read harmoniously as laws furthering the cause of Article 31(3)(c) cannot violate fundamental rights
Score: 0

6) What does Article 31(3)(c) of the Constitution guarantee?
   - Prevention of free legal aid
   - Protection of workers managing industries
   - Protection of freedom and environment
   - All of these

Answer: All of these
Score: 0

7) Which of the following is true about Part IV of the Constitution?
   - It has been used to argue for a fundamental right to environment
   - It has been used to argue for a fundamental right to healthcare
   - It has been used to argue for a fundamental right to livelihood
   - None of these

Answer: None of these
Score: 0

8) Which best describes the relationship of the judiciary and Part IV of the Constitution?
   - It is the primary domain of the courts to enforce the directive principles, but in today's political climate, it may directly implement them
   - It is the primary domain of the courts, but may be used in the judicial process for the purposes of interpretation
   - None of these
   - Both of these

Answer: Both of these
Score: 0

9) Which of the following is one of the aims of the Directive Principles of State Policy?
   - They embody the social economic transformative goals of the Constitution
   - They enable political constitutionalization
   - They provide the principles around which public institutions may organize
   - All of these

Answer: All of these
Score: 0

10) Which of the following are valid criticisms of the Directive Principles of State Policy?
    - They are nothing more than plaus principles that are aspirational, but lack teeth to embody real change on the ground
    - They are not politically radical
    - They are vaguely worded
    - All of these

Answer: All of these
Score: 0